Garfield got up early. He woke his owner John up at 7.30. They had breakfast together. Garfield told John some jokes and made him laugh. Then he watched a Dog Show. He hated dogs. Garfield walked in the street, chatted with his friends and bullied a watchdog in the next yard. In the evening Garfield stole three boxes of lasagne and ate all of them. He felt himself sick and John decided to visit a vet:
